I am not in full agreement of this proposal for the reason that Morse Code should be one of the requirements for entry into the HF Bands because of propagation abilities of these bands.
I do understand that many countries are dropping the code requirement but I do not think this is a wise idea to do so!
When all else fails, code works!